REVIEWS OLD TIME BASEBALL PLAYERS

Sylvester Breen Gives Interesting History of Many

FIRST PLAYED IN 1839

Alexandria in Bygone Years Produced Players Who Equaled Some of the Stars in the Major League.

It is amusing to the "Old-Time" baseball players and fans to read stories about the present day great baseball players, as written by a scribe who is not familiar with such baseball matters, and, as far as his joyous outbursts concerning wonderful local baseball players now in our midst as being superior to others, he has much to learn.

Baseball was first played in 1839, at Cooperstown, N. Y., by a major of the United States Army. The game had three bases. Two men played between first and second bases and two between second and third bases, or two shortstops and two second basemen, instead of one as now played. Many changes have been made in playing baseball since then and the Alexandria men have kept pace with the rest of the world on such matters.

In Alexandria's baseball hall of fame are men who were honorable in every way and some of the greatest baseball players of their day, and the equal, if not superior, to many of the stars in the American and National League at the present time.

Many baseball inventions, such as now used by players, were unknown to the old Alexandria boys—such as catchers' mits, basemen and fielders' gloves, shin guards, spiked shoes, sliding pads, and many other safe-

IN MEMORIAM

..JEFFRIES—Sacred to the memory of my dear husband, JAMES S. JEFFRIES, who departed this life one year ago today, June 18, 1919.

In the graveyards softly sleeping,
Where the flowers quietly wave,
Lies the one I love so dearly,
In his lonely, silent grave.

Thou art gone, but not forgotten,
In this great world of strife;
Thou shalt always be remembered,
As long as God gives me life.

More and more each day I miss you,
Friends may think the wound is healed
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within my heart concealed.

Days of sorrow still comes over me
Tears of sorrow silently flow
Fond memory keeps my dear Jim near me
Though heaven claimed him one year ago today.

By his loving wife,

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son JAMES S. JEFFRIES who died June 18, 1919, one year ago today.

I cannot understand why I had to part
From James I loved so dear
But God who doeth all things well
Will some day make it clear.

Gone but not forgotten
In the prime of youth was he.
Sought and loved by all who knew him
Loved and dearly loved by me.

His Loving Mother.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear brother and uncle JAMES S. Jeffries who died 1 year ago today, June 18, 1919.

How sadly I have counted the hours.
That measured one sorrowful year
Since they laid him beneath a mantle of flowers
The brother I loved so dear.

Sister Emma.

He suffered much, he murmured not
I watched him day by day
Until at last with broken heart,
I saw him pass away.

Sister Eva.

More and more each day I miss you
Friends may think the wound is healed
But they little now the sorrow
That lies within my heart concealed.

Niece Bessie.

MILITARY TO ORGANIZE

Capt. Duffey Secures Fifty Men For Company —Meeting Tonight

The required number of men, 50, to organize a military company in Alexandria has been obtained and Capt. Louis N. Duffey, who was in charge of securing recruits for the new company, has issued a call for a meeting to be held in the armory tonight for the purpose of organizing. All men who have signed up to become members of the new company are urged to attend the meeting tonight.

Capt. Duffey has just received word from Adjutant Gen. Jo Lane Stern that fifty men will be sufficient to organize.

KILLED BY FALLING TREE.

Marie Pugh, Aged 11, Killed Fleeing Storm at Chevy Chase.

Pinned beneath a poplar tree blown down by the storm a short distance from her home in North Chevy Chase, D. C., Marie Pugh, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Pugh, died yesterday before aid reached her. Her neck was broken.

Seeing the clouds gathering in the northwest, the child at a neighbor's house about 400 yards from her own home decided to run home before the storm broke. This was about 4:30 o'clock and the wind was rising.

The little girl was crossing a street when a big poplar uprooted by the wind, crashed to the ground. The child failed to judge the fall of the tree and before she could move she was crushed to the roadway with the heavy trunk across her tiny neck.

A man ran to her assistance and managed to extricate her. He took her to her home and summoned Dr. Eugene Jones of Kensington, Md. When the physician arrived at the Pugh residence the child was pronounced dead.

Chautauqua Coming

To Be Here July 7-13—Local Committee Organized

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the Chautauqua to be held here July 7-13 at a meeting held Wednesday night in the Westminster building, mapped out its plans and organized with the election of the following: Committee on advertising, Capt. George H. Evans, chairman; C. R. Morrison, Mrs. T. C. Howard; tickets, Mrs. James A. Hulfish; arrangements, K. W. Ogden; hospitality, Sherman B. Fowler; junior chautauqua, Mrs. Edwin E. Carver.

The sale of tickets for the week's session of the chautauqua has been large and it is expected that the sessions throughout will be largely patronized.

REBELS BEAT GOMPERS.

Plum Plan Virtually Indorsed by Overwhelming Vote of A. F. of L.

Montreal, June 18.—Government ownership and "democratic operation" of railroads was demanded in a resolution passed yesterday by the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor.

The language of the resolution was the language of the Plumb Plan League, although the league was not specifically mentioned.

The vote was 29,059 to 8,349. It came at the end of a two-day battle, the bitterest organized labor has had in years.

The result was a complete defeat for Samuel Gompers, veteran president of the federation, and is regarded as the only real setback he has received in years.

TOY TELEPHONE KILLS.

Fairmont, W. Va., June 18.—Martin Debosky and his two children were electrocuted and Mrs. Debosky was injured near their home at Monongah, W. Va., yesterday when wires leading from a toy telephone with which the children were playing came in contact with high tension traction wire.

NOTICE

Belle Haven Lodge, No. 11, Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, will give an informal dance at the Elks' Auditorium Friday evening, June 18th, 1920, at 8:30 p. m. Music by Abe Kaminsky's Orchestra. Admission, $1.00.

SPORTS

The Cardinals will play two games Sunday on North Alfred street, first game starting at 1.45 with Blantons Athletics and the second with the Shamrocks of Fredericksburg, Jones and Ludwig will do the pitching with Schaffer on the receiving end. Both these teams have been greatly strengthened in the last couple of weeks and the fans will find these two games well contested. Come and look 'em over and you will not be disappointed if you are in hopes of seeing a couple of good ball games. Don't forget the time and place Sunday at 1.45 on North Alfred street grounds.

Saturday at 3 p. m. on the Shipyard diamond the Virginia Athletic Club will cross bats with the Peerless Athletic Club.

A good line up is promised with Jumbo Raison and Tom Bayne twirling and Ham Nugent receiving.

It is expected that it will be a hard fought game, but the big V lads are sure that they will finish on the long end of the score.

The Virginia Club wishes to announce that their clubhouse located at the end of Wolfe street is open to the public on Sundays from 12 o'clock noon until 10 p. m.

K. OF C. MINSTRELS.

To Be Given at Lyceum Hall June 25th and 26th.

With Thursday and Friday evenings of next week set as the dates of the Knights of Columbus Minstrels, everything is set for the greatest laugh producer ever staged in Alexandria. The K. of C. Minstrels have been practicing for some time and have gotten to the point where everything indicates a wonderful success for the new adventurers in the field of minstrelsy.

The minstrels are under the direction of Mr. C. M. Horgan, lecturer of the local council, and he is being supported by an unusually large number of his fraternity brothers, as well as by many of the young ladies of St. Mary's Parish. While the minstrel endeavor is in itself a new project for its members, practically every member has had some experience in amateur theatrical lines, as the majority of the minstrel players are members of St. Mary's Dramatic Club. The minstrels will be held in the Lyceum Hall, where many interior improvements have been made in order to insure a greater success for both the entertainers and the "will-be entertained." Special scenery has been painted, a novel background will be one of the features, and a special dressing room for the lady members of the minstrels has been erected.

The dates are Thursday, June 24, and Friday, June 25, just one week off. New songs, up-to-the-minute jokes, clever dancing and the added attraction of Mme. Pechusa, the Oriental dancing celebrity, who has already left Cairo to attend the affair, are but few of the real treats in store on next Thursday and Friday evenings.

WILL NOT ACCEPT

San Francisco, June 18.—William G. McAdoo sent a message today to the Western delegates to the National Democratic Convention, instructing them not to vote for him under any circumstances as he had fully made up his mind not to accept the nomination for the Presidency.

The message is a verbal one and was brought by a Western delegate who received it from McAdoo personally in the East. The delegate who declines to have his name quoted, has been busy circulating among his fellow Western delegates delivering McAdoo's message to each in person.

MINSTRELS TONIGHT.

Seminole Players to Perform for Hospital Ambulance Fund.

All is in readiness for the big minstrel show tonight in the Opera House for the benefit of the ambulance for the Alexandria Hospital.

The Seminole Players were out in large numbers last night, headed by a band. They paraded the streets of our city, advertising the entertainment. They made a creditable showing and it is the first amateur minstrel show of our city to hold a parade of this character.

After the parade disbanded at the Opera House the players at once got busy on their final rehearsal before the show. These boys have worked hard for this entertainment and they promise the public a good show for the money.

Many changes have been made in the program. The entire after part will be new, and the wind-up will consist of an old-time southern cake walk, composed of four couples, and at the conclusion of the cake walk a handsome cake will be presented to the winners. The applause of the audience is to decide the winner, so get your ticket for the show and go root for your favorite. Those who have the general admission tickets are requested to get them exchanged for reserved seats as early as possible to avoid the rush at the box office.

Reserved seats can be purchased from Warfield's' Drug Store up to 7 p.m. After that time they can be purchased at the box office at the Opera House. At 7:15 tonight there will be a band concert in front of the Opera House.

"Don't mind the weather, as the Opera House will be cool and the side-splitting jokes and the good singing will make you forget about the weather condition. Boost the ambulance fund and buy a ticket and the Opera House. Performance will go to the minstrel show tonight to start at 8:15 p.m.

WINS DEBATING MEDAL

Miss Laury Blewett Awarded High School Prize

The annual debate of the Alexandria High school took place last night in the auditorium of that school and was won by Miss Laury Blewett. The question debate was on a bonus for ex-service en. Miss Blewett took the negative side and others on this side were Fred West and Herbert Knight. Miss Blewett won the gold medal given by the school faculty.

Those who were on the affirmative side were Everett James, Herbert Allen and Miss Virginia Schwab.

Judges of the contest were J. H. Trimyer, Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson and Miss Mary Bontz.

Back From Meeting

Alexandrians Attend 37th Annual Meeting in Richmond.

Judge J. K. M. Norton, first vice president of the board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association; W. S. Risden, a member of the educational service committee of the board, and Secretary K. E. Wallace, have just returned from Richmond, where they attended the 37th annual convention of the Association in Virginia.

The convention was one of the largest attended and most important ever held in the state. One of the most important items on the program was the adoption of a new constitution for the government of the State Association, and Judge Norton was a member of the revision committee and did a great part in framing the future Association policy in Virginia.

The state secretary's report showed that the work is rapidly being extended throughout the state, many communities and counties being as rapidly organized as thoroughly trained secretaries are secured to man the fields. The report showed that nearly two hundred ex-service men have taken advantage of the free scholarships being offered by the war work council.

The state executive committee was very highly pleased with the remarkable beginning being made in the Y. M. C. A. in Alexandria and the program is to be intensified in this city, it being the largest city in the state conducting a non-equipment service.

The two principal speakers of the campaign were Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newport News Shipbuilding Corporation, and Harry N. Holmes of Australia, who had charge of the British Y. M. C. A. in France during the war. The convention closed with a fellowship dinner at the Hotel Richmond.

Indorse Relief Work

Ministerial Association Holds Annual Meeting.

The Ministerial Association of the city, at its annual meeting held today in the Westminster building, gave its indorsement to the pending campaign for the relief of the starving Armenians. Approval also was given the work of the Y. M. C. A. in this city under the leadership of Secretary K. E. Wallace. There was a general discussion on matters affecting the city. Rev. O. W. Reynolds, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, was elected a member of the conference.

These officers were re-elected for the year: Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, president; Rev. Dr. E. V. Regester, pastor of the M. E. Church South, vice president, and Rev. G. J. Hill, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, secretary and treasurer.

SHOOTING OF BOY.

Court to Decide Justification of Tangier Constable Now on Trial.

Accomac, Va., June 18.—Charles Connorton, the town constable of Tangier Island, went on trial in the county court of Accomac county yesterday, charged with shooting Roland Parks, 16 years old, a Tangier boy. It will be a part of the court's duty to decide whether Parks was shot because he did not go to church on Sunday, April 11, or because he "swore on the street," resisted an officer of the law, or finally because of ill feeling existing between Connorton and the Parks family.

Having decided which of these was the occasion of the shooting, it will next devolve upon Judge James H. Fletcher, jr., who is sitting in the case, to determine just how much justification any one of these causes would give Connorton for all but mortally wounding a 16-year-old boy.

Whether the Tangier constable shot Parks because he failed to attend church servvices on the fateful April Sunday, the fact remains that had there been no law on the books of the incorporated town of Tangier designed to compel church attendance, there would have been no shooting. That law is the background, middle ground and foreground of the present case.

Ever since Parson Thomas "converted" Tangier Island folks, about 110 years ago that community of fishermen has had a dominating religious element. The fact that this religious element has been confined to one religious sect, with one church and one only, may not have contributed to a tolerant state of mind. Be that as it may, the Tangier church has been the center of the town's interests, social as well as religious, and since the incorporation of the town two years ago, it is charged, political as well.

The actual charge against Connorton is "felonous assault with malicious intent to do bodily injury or kill." Conviction carries a fine of from $5 to $500 or imprisonment up to five years.

THEATRES

ANITA STEWART TAKES PART OF VAMP

For the first time in her screen career Anita Stewart appears as a vamp in a motion picture, "The Yellow Typhoon," from the novel by Harold MacGrath, which will be shown at the Richmond Theater beginning today.

She plays the double part of twin sisters, Bertha and Hilda Nordstrom, the former a striking blond of the adventuress type and the latter a sweet brunette with characteristics quite the opposite.

In essaying the role of Bertha, whose golden hair and artful ways leave men broken as the reeds in the path of a storm and give to her the name of "The Yellow Typhoon," Miss Stewart portrays in convincing manner an unusual character part.

SCORES IN SOCIETY DRAMA.

H. B. Warner, the Robertson-Cole star, gets away from Oriental intrigue, Mongolian revolution and western melodrama, in "A Fugitive From Matrimony," his latest production at the Ingomar today.

"A Fugitive From Matrimony" is a society comedy-drama by Fred Myton, and provides the distinguished actor with a role similar to the characterizations which won him fame on the speaking stage. As a breezy, whimsical young American, who flees from matrimony as from a plague, Warner is in his element. It was in just such roles in such sensational stage successes as "Nurse Marjorie," "Sleeping Partners" and "Alias Jimmie Valentine" that Warner endeared himself to the American public, and his legion of enthusiastic admirers will welcome him as the returned prodigal in this dierting role.

Catarrh is a Real Enemy and Requires Vigorous Treatment

Do Not Neglect It.

When you use sprays, atomizers and douches for your Catarrh, you may succeed in unstopping the choked-up air passages for the time being, but this annoying condition returns, and you have to do the same thing over and over again.

Catarrh has never yet been cured by these local applications. Have you ever experienced any real benefit from such treatment?

Throw these makeshift remedies to the winds, and get on the right treatment. Get a bottle of S. S. S., and begin a treatment that has been praised by sufferers for half a century.

S. S. S. gets right at the source of Catarrh, and forces from the blood the germs which cause the disease. Special medical advice regarding your own case free. Address Medical Director, 106 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Easy? I'll say it is!

You never saw anything in your life like Clean Easy for washing. You simply soak the clothes over night and boil them for ten minutes in 4½ gallons of water and ½ bar of shredded Clean Easy Naptholeine Wash Soap dissolved. Punch with a stick, rinse, blue and dry—and the whole week's washing's done.

Sounds almost too good to be true, doesn't it? Just think of doing an average week's washing in ten minutes for a few cents! Without rubbing, scrubbing or any mean work! No wonder thousands of women say that Clean Easy is the most wonderful helper a woman ever had.

Once you've seen Clean Easy work, you'll never, never break your back over a scrubbing board again. Clean Easy disinfects and cleans cleaner than you can, anyhow. It looks different from other soaps—and it is different, too! One trial will prove it. Order a bar of Clean Easy today, from your grocer's.

He Solved the Problem

Once upon a time there lived a poor but honest man. He had some money, but he needed so many things and prices were so high that he did not know what to do, so he went to a man who had learned to save money and told his troubles. Now this man really was a wise chap, and, upon his advice, the poor fellow went to The Army Store, 105 North Royal Street, and bought what he needed.

Here are the prices he paid: Khaki pants, lace or full leg, $1.50; suits $2.25; Summer underwear reclaimed, $1.25 suit; new $1.75 and $1.50.

Cotton Shirts $1.25
Wool Shirts $2.00 and $2.25

ANOTHER "COAL OIL JOHNNY."

William Cathcart, wealthy banker and land owner of Sidell, Ill., has been appointed conservator for the remainder of the estate of his nephew, Alex C. Herron, by Probate Judge Horner of Chicago, after Cathcart has testified that the youngster within the last two years had spent $60,000 of his inheritance of upward of a million dollars. Herron told the court it cost money to maintain an apartment and keep a fleet of automobiles on the go. He also explained he lent money to "the fellows when they were hard up." "Judge, my automobiles, eight of them, are almost as expensive as my sweetheart," he explained mournfully. "Oh, you have been squandering your income on women?" asked the court. "I wouldn't say squandering, Your Honor," answered Herron. "every dollar I've spent has been productive of a good time." "But what do you need with a fleet of automobiles?" queried the Judge. "To please my lady friends," sallied Herron. "Say, Judge, when you've got a lot of money and a car that rides like a Pullman, you got a waiting list a mile long with the matrons. A woman is never too old to be congenial. I guess I have been too liberal with all of them."

YOUNG WOMEN'S APPAREL.

Doubtless there will be some to criticise the New Orleans priest who refused to perform a wedding ceremony until the bride went home and garbed herself modestly. Without knowing any of the particulars in the case, it may be assumed that the clergyman acted in this case because he found the time had come to replace advice with action. It is hard to believe such drastic action would have been taken had not the situation justified it.

There will be those who will insist that such scrupulousness is old-fashioned and out of keeping with the temper of the times. They will insist that matters of modesty and social convention constantly change, are artificial and must be viewed in the light of the present. This is true enough, but it should not be used as an excuse for immodesty, particularly in one of the most solemn moments of life. There are some of us who are not in the least prudish, who consider ourselves liberal and progressive, but who have been dumbfounded and hurt over the recent conduct of young girls in relation to their clothes and facial adornment.

The greatest gift in the world is that charm and beauty which come with youth and which unfortunately must pass. Nature and common sense have combined to make this the time for young girls at least to produce their best impression without those artificial aids which coming age require. It is painful to see young girls with good complexions paint and powder themselves and spoil their beauty. It is even worse to see them attempt by radically immodest dress to attract the opposite sex, when it is not only unnecessary, but a defeatist policy. One wonders what kind of mothers these young girls are going to make.

Most girls may be considered sufficient guardians of their own virtue, but they are wrong in aping the costumes and cosmetics of the demimonde at a time when beauty unadorned is adorned the most.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Dentist Resigns From Secret Society and Has Members Arrested.

West Orange, N. J., June 18.—Howard Applegate, a dentist, after going through the initiation rites of a secret society of the alumni of the high school here yesterday, decided that he did not care to be a member.

Applegate claimed he was taken to a nearby woods by nine members of the society, all leading business men here, stripped, tarred, feathered, beaten and threatened with rocks.

The imitators denied they used tar. Applegate has obtained warrants charging assault and battery.

Belgian Veterans Band On Tour

Composer of "Birth of a Nation" Music Is Director

Martial music by veteran soldiers! One's blood fairly tingles in anticipation. Some way the martial spirit in music thrills and always an audience as little else does.

Martial music by a Belgian Veterans' Band! One thinks of heroic Belgium blocking Germany's road to the sudden victory she had planned; of Belgium holding vast armies at bay while the allies could leap to arms; of Belgium ravaged, burned, devastated, suffering as few nations have suffered; of the soul of Belgium too honorable to yield, willing to endure martyrdom rather than compromise with militarism and oppression. And in the martial music of this band there is that unconquerable, uncompromising soul of Belgium surging in heroic devotion, crashing in sublime protest, sobbing in heartbreaking pathos, and at last singing its pean of triumph.

Emile Michaux, the talented director, is, like most of his men, a veteran of the Royal Belgian Army, of one of whose bands he was a member. He has more than sixty meritorious musical compositions to his credit, a few of which will be played at Chautauqua. American audiences will be interested in the fact that he composed the distinctive and remarkably effective musical accompaniment for the famous "Birth of a Nation" movie film.

Directed by this musical genius, the Belgian Veterans' Band will render not only the greatest musical offering of the week, but also the most elaborate musical treat ever presented to Chautauqua patrons. The program will not be devoted entirely, nor perhaps principally to martial music, but will include selections of all kinds ranging from the popular to the classic. There will be numerous special features, including a cornet solo by M. Michaux, horn duets, quartets, and sextets, beside the great arias sung by Miss Florence Withrow, the American soprano whom M. Michaux has selected and coached especially for this tour.

The Third Day is Band Day—Belgian Veterans' Band Day. Don't forget it.

guards now used for the protection of players. Nevertheless high-grade baseball was played in the old days, and, every old-time fan will vouch for the claim that the old-times played better baseball in every way than the present-day players. When they went out on the ball field to play their purpose was to win the game, and they never knew the word "quit." Were these men true to their friends? Yes, as loyal as any men ever created but were too red blooded to turn away from any person who had assisted them in any way. These lads were prized highly by the big leagues' managers for whom they played and were admired by the fans, around their league circuit.

Robert "Dick" Cox was one of the speediest fielders, hard-hitting batters, and best base runner ever turned out anywhere and he has won many games for his team by doing the right thing at the proper time. As a big leaguer he played with the Atlanta, Georgia, and Washington teams.

The above-named men were first-class players in every way and were winners of many hard-fought battles with leading baseball teams from different parts of the United States who visited this city. The Alexandrians also traveled extensively under the management of the late Charles Adams and they were great attractions and had large crowds everywhere to witness games in which they participated.

Many brilliant baseball players are listed in the following names having played on different teams in this city: George Norris, Francis Downham, John Aitcheson, Ernest Smith, William West, Hugh Latham, William Woodfield, James Burroughs, Robert Lucas, William Schafer, one of the best and brainest little catchers who ever caught behind the bat and a star player of his time, Harry Richards, Steve Wools, Walter Muir, Edward O'Brien, Mayor Thomas Fisher, Samuel Fisher, Steiner Hayes, Frank McLearen, Hammy Martin, George Pettitt, Ernest Mills, a noted pitcher, truly one of the best sandlot twirlers during his baseball career, Harry Massey, William B. Dobie, jr., Thomas D. Downey, William Downey, Joseph Breen, Walter Donnelly, Robert Pitts, John Bartlett, J. Marlott Hill, and last, but not least, Charles Steiner, the "speedboy" who was known as the first man to pitch a curve ball in Alexandria, and one who had a big list of wins to his credit.

Thus, in the above baseball story, are facts concerning stars of former days, nevertheless, many brilliant amateur players are now performing on the sandlots of Alexandria, and, if properly handled, will some time in the near future be members of the American League and National League teams in some of the great cities of the country.

It has always been my purpose to treat all young Alexandria baseball players fair in every way, while many have appreciated my efforts in their behalf, others have proved false to me.

Sylvester A. Breen.

CALOMEL LOSING OUT IN SOUTH

Mr. Dodson, the 'Liver Tone' Man, Responsible for Change for the Better

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it," Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience. Calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick since all the next day like violent calomel and nauseated. Don't lose a day.

Are You A Slave to Housework?

Are you manacled to drudgery—sentenced to hard housework labor; to be oppressed by summer heat; submitting yourself to the arduous duties of housework like women still living in the dark ages of servility?

In the pioneer days both men and women faced their duties with Spartan-like perseverance because there was no alternative, but in those days both men and women were constitutionally fortified to endure the hardships and heavy work.

Progress and invention has recognized the demand for labor-saving devices and conveniences because men of today are attuned to efficiency and time-saving and women are nurtured for ease, comfort, for happiness, for efficiency in the conduct of home work.

Wise women will adopt these 20th Century methods of dispatching household work. Considerate husbands will insist upon it. Make the household work easy, practical, sanitarily and healthfully effective and comfortable.

Below are some seasonable suggestions:

Put The Ease in Efficiency With A Crystal Washer

That is exactly what this wonderful washing and wringing machine will do for any household. Do away with the terrors of wash day during the hot summer weather, making this day one of the most pleasant work days of the entire week.

TO OUR COAL TRADE

Under present conditions our receipts of domestic coal are limited and prices are constantly changing.

We will be glad to enter orders; deliver the coal as promptly as we can secure it, and bill it to our customers on the basis of cost to us plus our usual gross margin, and this will have to be our policy at this time as everything indicates great uncertainty in the coal trade.

Our customers can be assured that we will do everything possible to keep the price as low as we are able to, consistent with quality, weight and service, and we shall be glad to have you entrust the business to us on this basis.

This also applies to any orders we already have from our trade.

BOUND TO RAIL.

Missourian Loses Hand and Leg. No Motivve Except Robbery.

Excelsior Springs, Mo., June 18.—George M. Underwood, who lost a hand and a leg last night when bandits tied him to a railroad track five minutes before a train passed, yesterday told the story of his experience and denied that the men had any motive that he knew of except robbery. Underwood is expected to recover.

"An hour or so after dark," he said, "as I was walking to the station to catch a train for Carrollton, Mo., my home, two men with a touring car forced me into the car and took my watch and $70. They drove south and one of the men said 'Let's kill the ——.'

"'No,' returned the other, 'we will tie him to the railroad track.'

"We stopped once at a pile of barbed wire and one of the men got several long strands of it. We stopped again and I was forced to get down on the track.

"A few minutes later while I was struggling to escape I heard the rumble of the approaching train. I tried to scream, but rags in my mouth throttled my voice. As the engine came within a few rods of me I threw all my strength into another attempt to escape. My right hand was free at last and I tore the gag from my mouth, screaming. Then I loosened my right leg and swung partly free from the track, but my left foot and hand were too tightly bound to be released.

"Something seemed to sting my entire body. I suppose I fainted for a moment, but soon I was screaming again. A farmer came from somewhere and helped untie the barbed wire, which was still partly strung around my body."

REPORTED WOUNDED.

Doorn, Holland, June 18.—There are persistent rumors in the village that the former German Emperor has been assaulted by a Belgian, who, showing a forged pass, gained admittance to Doorn Castle. It is asserted that the former Emperor was wounded in the jaw and that the Belgian was arrested

GIRLS! MAKE A LEMON BLEACH

Lemons Whiten and Double Beauty of the Skin

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White which can be had at any drug store, shake well and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach for few cents.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use lemon juice to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion. Lemons have always been used as a freckle, sunburn and tan remover. Make this up and try it.
